

Helen Ruelle and Tiffany Tolliss recognised as leading lawyers at Citywealth Powerwomen Awards

News - 08/03/2023

Ogier's director of Local Legal Services Helen Ruelle and senior associate Tiffany Tolliss were recognised as leading practitioners in their jurisdictions at the Citywealth Powerwomen Awards this week.

One of Jersey's most prominent employment lawyers, Helen is ranked in the Legal 500 Hall of Fame and top tier in Chambers directory. She is chair of the Jersey Employment Trust and trustee of Acorn Enterprises, a Commissioner of Jersey Appointments Commission and Trustee of Jersey Community Foundation. She took home silver in the Woman of the Year – Jersey category.

A rising star in Ogier's BVI Corporate team, Tiffany Tolliss is ranked as a key lawyer in the Legal 500 Caribbean and has worked on a number of the big-ticket matters over the past few years, including the $1.5 billion Constellation global restructuring. She is jurisdictional lead for both Diversity and Inclusion and Sustainability in the BVI and has played a pivotal role in a number of office and wider community initiatives. Tiff took home gold in the Woman of the Year – Future Leaders – Senior Associate/SVP – IFC category.

Global managing partner Edward Mackereth said: "It's excellent to see this industry recognition for Helen and Tiff as we celebrate International Women's Day this week. They are leading lights both in their legal practice and in their contribution to life at Ogier - congratulations to them both on this well-deserved recognition."
