

Dispute resolution and employment specialist Audrey Bertolotti joins Ogier in Luxembourg as partner

News - 14/03/2023

Dispute resolution and employment law specialist Audrey Bertolotti has joined Ogier in Luxembourg as a partner to spearhead the firm's litigation and employment offering in the jurisdiction.

Audrey has an outstanding track record of successfully representing clients in complex litigation matters and also advises clients on every aspect of Luxembourg employment law and practice including relocation, restructuring, collective redundancies, remuneration policies, incentive schemes and global employment contracts.

Luxembourg practice partner Bertrand Gérardin said: "At Ogier we expand and develop our services in direct response to client demand. With client requirements spanning a range of non-contentious and contentious services, the ability to provide a substantive Dispute Resolution and Employment offering from Luxembourg is a real benefit. We're very pleased that Audrey has joined our team. She has significant experience working on matters which are complex, high profile and span multiple jurisdictions, and will use this insight to bring real value to her clients."
