

Corporate expert Oisín McLoughlin joins the Ogier partnership in Ireland

News - 28/03/2023

Ogier Leman has welcomed new partner Oisín McLoughlin to its Corporate team.

A Legal 500 "key lawyer," Oisín is a mergers and acquisitions (M&A) specialist who has more than 15 years' experience advising investors in and promoters of technology companies, private equity clients, international and domestic energy developers, generators and utilities, and various clients in the supply chain for the technology, manufacturing and pharma industries.

His practice also includes advice for owner managed businesses, joint ventures, investment rounds, foreign direct investment, private equity transactions and corporate reorganisations and governance.

"Oisín is an experienced and talented lawyer who has earned a reputation for delivering targeted commercial advice to clients and getting deals done. I'm delighted Oisín has joined the partnership," said Corporate partner Dominic Conlon.

"Dublin is one of Europe's leading tech hubs and home to a thriving collection of start-ups, scale-ups and big national and international firms. Oisín has considerable experience advising clients in the tech sector, adding further strength in depth to our Corporate team."

Before joining Ogier Leman in 2023, Oisín was a partner at another multinational law firm. He previously worked with Ogier from 2011 to 2013.
