Background and experience

Sarah has more than 25 years' experience in the finance sector in Jersey and is a member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners.

Prior to joining Ogier in 2019, Sarah was a Director of a global administration provider's private wealth business, where she acted as a professional trustee and director on a wide range of structures for UHNW clients from Europe, the Middle East and Asia. This included a significant association with an ultra-high net worth family, which included a private trust company, trusts and foundations.

She also fulfilled the role of trustee and director on a structure holding a large portfolio of prime London commercial real estate and acted as trustee on numerous family trusts for UHNW individuals and families across various jurisdictions working with a broad range of assets including real estate, art, classic cars, luxury yachts, private aircraft, investment portfolios, bank deposits, listed and unlisted securities.
