Enforcement of Judgments and Awards

Background and experience

Dunzelle is part of Ogier's multi-disciplinary Restructuring and Insolvency team and has experience in all aspects of commercial litigation and corporate insolvency. At Ogier, Dunzelle undertakes work on a variety of commercial litigation matters, often involving cross-border issues and arising in an insolvency related context, including but not limited to:

- insurance disputes;
- claims against directors/trustees;
- shareholder/beneficial ownership disputes;
- breach of duty (contract, tortious and fiduciary);
- enforcement of foreign judgments and arbitral awards, and interim relief (including third-party disclosure and injunctions);
- capital reductions and schemes of arrangements; and,
- appraisal/fair value proceedings.

Prior to moving the Cayman Islands, Dunzelle worked as an associate at a leading international law firm in Australia in its top tier insurance practice, where she acted for Australian and international insurers, underwriters, loss adjusters, financial institutions and corporations. Dunzelle is a member of the International Women's Insolvency and Restructuring Confederation (IWIRC) and the Recovery and Insolvency Specialists Association (Cayman) Limited (RISA).

Admitted in:

2013 - New South Wales, Australia
