Background and experience

Prior to joining Ogier, David was client director at an international corporate services provider based in Jersey, and also at a fund administration firm where he led a dedicated, outsourced administration and accounting team between 2016 and 2019. Before this role, David oversaw a large administration team focusing on private equity funds with a principle focus on infrastructure.

David was responsible for the launch and final closing of a US$7 billion fund which included the establishment and administration of a number of regulated funds, co-investment vehicles and in excess of 120 SPVs.

David is ICSA qualified.
