

Ogier's Luxembourg and Cayman teams advise Partners Capital on redomiciliation of fund

Deals - 02/11/2022

A cross-jurisdictional team from Ogier has advised long-standing client Partners Capital on the redomiciliation of a US$3.2 billion Cayman fund to Luxembourg.

The redomiciliation involved a collaboration between Ogier's funds teams in Luxembourg and the Cayman Islands with support from the firm's financing teams. Partner Nicholas Plowman and counsel Richard Bennett provided Cayman Islands counsel and associate Pierre Andriuzzi provided Luxembourg legal expertise.

Richard Bennett says: "This successful redomiciliation demonstrates the synergies between the Cayman Islands and Luxembourg when it comes to building and reshaping business strategies for US managers with a growing European footprint. By working as a single team across our offices on this transaction we have been able to provide a smooth and consistent experience for the client."

Partners Capital is a leading global outsourced investment office, advising on c. US$45 billion of assets on behalf of distinguished endowments and foundations, senior investment professionals and prominent families across the globe.
