

The role of the court in Beddow applications— Re the F Charitable Trust

Insights - 29/05/2018

Oliver has written for Trusts and Trustees about Beddow applications – his piece considers the nature of Beddow applications, how they compare with other categories of trustee applications for directions, and the role of the court in such applications.

It also raises some practical points in relation to the conduct of litigation by trustees, which trustees would be well advised to have in mind when using trust funds to fund litigation.
