

Job Description

Job title: Associate

Department: Funds

Jurisdiction: Hong Kong

Purpose of the role

As an Associate in Hong Kong's Investment Funds group, you will provide technically sound offshore legal advice on a range of investment fund issues and products, specifically focusing on Cayman and/or BVI laws (although it is not essential that you have practised these laws directly). The team also gets involved in corporate transactions including downstream private equity deals, M&A and restructurings.

You will have lead counsel experience and should have an intimate knowledge of hedge fund, fund of fund and private equity fund structures. We will also consider candidates without direct funds experience who have M&A/ corporate experience. The structures you will be involved with will include companies, limited partnerships, LLCs and unit trust structures.

Unit trust experience will be a real bonus in the context of this fund structuring. Regulatory experience around investment fund products in Asia would also be a benefit, although this is not crucial. You will also be expected to build and maintain productive working relationships with clients and intermediaries alike.

Key Responsibilities

- Responsible for providing technically sound legal work and technical advice to clients.
- Responsible for the quality of client services provided by self and direct reports.
- Responsible for building and maintaining productive working relationships with clients.
- Responsible for the preparation of fee matter estimates and quotations.
- Responsible for ensuring effective management of time, effort and resources in order to generate maximum efficiencies.

Competencies

- 3-5 years post qualification experience, ideally in the area of trust although will consider commercial experience.
- Excellent interpersonal and relationship management skills.
- Presents effective arguments to influence others and achieve negotiated solutions.
- Demonstrates commercial awareness and understands the impact of decisions and actions on the business.
