

Job Description

Job title: Associate
Department: Banking & Finance / Capital Markets
Jurisdiction: Luxembourg

The Firm

The Ogier Luxembourg office offers tailor made legal advice to investment funds, private equity and financial institutions on cross-border transactions.

We act for leading fund managers, banks, corporate and private equity institutional clients based primarily in London, Continental Europe, East Asia and North & South America.

As the only provider of legal services with a significant presence in both Luxembourg and the leading international jurisdictions of the BVI, Cayman, Guernsey and Jersey, Ogier is uniquely placed to provide fully integrated advice on both Luxembourg and offshore laws and investment structures/vehicles.

Purpose of the role

We are currently looking for an associate for our Banking & Finance department with an international mind-set, strong commitment and creativity. You would join Ogier, a leading international offshore law firm with a global network of offices, 400 employees and 55 partners in 8 jurisdictions.

Key responsibilities and challenges

- Advising clients on all matters relating to banking and finance, equity and debt capital markets and securitisation, as well as regulatory issues
- Being involved in a wide variety of finance operations such as secured lending, acquisition and real estate finance, financial collateral arrangements, bond issues and listings on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, etc.
- Initiating, building and maintaining effective client relationships;

Competencies

- You have completed a postgraduate law degree, ideally complemented with an additional degree gained abroad (LL.M or Business School degree);
- You have gained a meaningful banking & finance / corporate experience (2-3 years' post qualification experience) ideally in a top tier law firm with international exposure;
- You are admitted to the Bar in Luxembourg or another EU jurisdiction, or have attended or are eligible to attend the CCDL;
- You are a team player and would like to be professionally active in an international environment, with the ability to work effectively in a team and sometimes under pressure;

Job description (cont.)

- You are autonomous, dynamic, flexible, proactive, service-oriented and have excellent communication skills; and
- You have a perfect command of both written and spoken English and French. Any other language would be an asset.

What we offer

- A practical experience including direct contact with experienced lawyers and partners, creating opportunities for personal progression;
- A young and dynamic and multicultural working environment;
- The possibility to develop a deep expertise and gain substantial exposure to various practice areas;
- Autonomous file management under the supervision of a senior lawyer or partner; and
- A training programme to develop your legal, business and soft skills in close collaboration with our Jersey head office;
- A career progression and attractive benefits.

Contact

If you are interested to join an international growing law firm, please send your application (including cover letter and resume in English) to recruitment@ogier.com

Regulatory information can be found at ogier.com