Articled Clerk Opportunities with Ogier

Progressing your career can be a complex matter. Our training programme helps you manage that complexity and progress to the next level.

We help to refine and develop your professional skills while you gain practical experience in a legal environment. Our successful training programme is supported by mentoring and development from highly qualified individuals focused on cultivating bright legal minds.

Prospective Articled Clerks should have achieved consistent, competitive academic results in their legal studies with a minimum 2:1 grade and currently be completing their PPC or LPC at a recognised institution.

We're known for responsiveness, client service and quality, but it's the way we work that sets us apart. As the marketplace continues to evolve and the issues our clients face become more and more complex, they appreciate the fact that we focus on what's needed, getting to what really matters: clear, accurate and pragmatic advice.

If you like the sound of our approach, you can apply for the September intake by sending a cover letter, your resume and proof of your academic results to date to caymanlegalrecruitment@ogier.com no later than 1 July 2017.
