

Partners James Campbell and Catherine Moore will be attending the Private Client Exchange Switzerland.

The exchange will focus on the three pillars which make the forums a success: intimate discussions, the right people and ample networking time. There will also be scope to debate key issues across a handful of areas, carefully curated by local Chairs.