

Our Corporate and M&A partners Bertrand Gérardin and Laurent Thailly will attend the 11th IBA European Corporate and Private M&A Conference which will take place in Paris on 2-3 February.

Topics include:

- Current legal developments in European private M&A
- ESG in private companies
- Best practice in secondary buyouts and circular deals
- What a deal lawyer should know about acquisition finance today
- How to buy a bank in Europe: commonalities, discrepancies, and best practices
- Negotiating merger control provisions in interesting times
- Between conference, board, and court rooms: pre-closing deal renegotiations and litigation
- Structuring the purchase price in troubled times

The International Bar Association (IBA) conferences are a great opportunity for legal professionals worldwide to meet, share knowledge, build contacts and develop business.

Please get in touch if you would like to arrange a meeting via the contact details provided on the right.
