Background and experience

Ghita joined Ogier with experience working in dispute resolution and with offshore fiduciary services providers in the Cayman Islands and Canada.

In these roles, Ghita has assisted with numerous litigation matters in various fields, including insolvency, restructuring and civil rights matters. In addition, as part of her fiduciary services roles, Ghita has helped to develop and implement policies and standard operating procedures relating to regulatory requirements for corporate services providers.

Ghita was also part of the launch of the Cayman Islands Legal Assistance Clinic. The clinic pairs law students in their final year with practising lawyers to offer free advice to members of the public on civil claims of up to KY$20,000 as well as criminal, traffic and family matters.

Ghita completed her Bachelor of Laws with Honours from the University of Liverpool in 2021, and in 2022, obtained a Postgraduate Diploma in Legal Practice with Distinction from Oxford Brookes University.
