

Vania Sargeant

Areas of expertise

Background and experience

Vania has more than 16 years' experience in the offshore finance sector, working with a broad range of clients with a particular focus on the administration of complex open-ended and closed-ended funds and corporate structures.

Vania has experience working with a range of fund and corporate entities in various business sectors such as alternative assets, private equity, real estate, administration of Shari'ah compliant structures, and finance transactions.