

The Association of the Luxembourg Fund Industry (ALFI) will host the 2023 edition of its European Asset Management Conference on 21-22 March 2023.

Our Luxembourg Investment Funds partners Anne-Gaëlle Delabye and Benoît Rose will attend the event. Please don't hesitate to connect with them.

Some of the topics of this conference include:

- A keynote on the big picture macro world and its implications for the asset management industry
- Engaging with investors in times of volatile markets
- Driving alpha generation: How Artificial Intelligence and related technologies are being used to support investment decision making
- Asset servicing 2.0, next generation tech solutions
- Corporate taxation in Europe: Key trends and developments of relevance for Luxembourg management companies
- From acronyms to ESG compliance or greenwashing?
- What will shape future fund products?
- An interview with the CSSF
