Ogier's Guernsey Corporate team has advised Long Term Assets Limited (LTA), a Guernsey investment company, on its acquisition of a controlling equity position in Gottschalg Analytics.

Gottschalg Analytics is an independent second-generation provider of performance intelligence services for the private markets. Fund managers leverage the power of Gottschalg Analytics to boost fundraising effectiveness and efficiency, demonstrating key differentiation, competitive positioning and risk-mitigation capabilities to further enhance ongoing investor communication activities.

The acquisition by LTA provides significant supporting working capital to enable the accelerated development of the business as an independent and conflict-free authority for private market track record analytics.

The Ogier team advised on all Guernsey law aspects in relation to the acquisition and was led by partner Bryon Rees and senior associate James Walsh, who worked alongside lead counsel Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe (UK) LLP.
