

BVI partner Michael Killourhy wins Client Choice Award for M&A and Governance

News - 30/11/2023

Ogier partner Michael Killourhy has won the Lexology Client Choice Award 2024 for M&A and Governance in the British Virgin Islands.

Established in 2005, Client Choice recognises lawyers for their excellent client care, quality of their service and their ability to add real value to clients' businesses above and beyond other players in the market.

Michael advises on a broad range of BVI corporate and finance matters, including M&A, equity and debt capital markets, financings and complex corporate restructuring. He is widely recognised as one of the BVI's leading public company experts and its pre-eminent special purpose acquisition company (SPAC) expert. He's also a thought leader and key figure in the BVI's growing digital and virtual technologies sector and is a key member of Ogier's multidisciplinary Technology and Web3 group sector group.

Legal 500 Caribbean recently said: "Michael Killourhy is an exceptional partner and legal professional. His expertise in the offshore world . . . is truly commendable. His vast knowledge and years of experience have made him a standout in the field, consistently delivering solutions to complex legal matters."

BVI practice partner Ray Wearmouth said: "We're delighted to see Michael recognised again in these awards. Importantly, these awards are voted for by clients and this award is another testament to Mike's unwavering commitment to putting clients first."
