

The Global Elite is thrilled to announce the return of the Exchange, an event over two days which focuses on two crucial pillars which make our events a success: Intimate discussions, the right people and ample networking time.

Henry Wickham will be joining other Global Elite members where they can expect an engaging agenda led by world renowned advisors and plenty of opportunities to connect. There will be scope to debate key issues concerning both you and your clients across a handful of areas.