Background and experience

Angus has extensive experience providing advice on corporate and finance transactions involving Cayman Islands vehicles. Angus' clients include a number of local and international financial institutions, investors and borrowers requiring advice on secured lending, fund financing, Islamic finance and restructuring transactions.

As part of Ogier's multi-disciplinary Private Equity team, Angus advises many of our investment funds clients on their financing arrangements and other transactions involving a wide range of IPOs, mergers & acquisitions (public and private), joint ventures, non-contentious restructuring and commercial transactions. He also acts for a number of the firm's largest investment funds clients in relation to new fund formation, on-going regulatory and corporate advice.

Angus joined Ogier in 2005 and became a partner in 2010. He is a member of the Legal Executive Board and a director of Ogier Global, Ogier's corporate administration business.

Prior to joining Ogier, he worked for a number of years as a solicitor with Minter Ellison and PricewaterhouseCoopers Legal in Sydney, Australia.

He received his Bachelor of Economics and Bachelor of Laws, with Honours, from the Australian National University and his Master of Laws from the University of Sydney. Angus is a member of the Cayman Islands Legal Practitioners Association.
