Background and experience

Daniel is a Luxembourg Advocate, Jersey Advocate and English Solicitor.

Daniel co-founded Ogier's Luxembourg office in 2012, leading Ogier's Luxembourg finance and private equity teams. He has extensive experience in all aspects of international investment structuring and related financing in Luxembourg, Jersey and UK.

Having read law at Cambridge University, Daniel qualified as an English solicitor in 1999, practicing at Hogan Lovells' City of London office 1997-2002.

Since moving to Jersey in 2002 and to Luxembourg in 2012, Daniel has acted for fund managers and banks in relation to the establishment, financing and portfolio investment by, regulated and non-regulated international investment structures across the broad range of alternative asset classes, including: private equity, real estate, infrastructure, infrastructure finance, credit and special opportunities.

Nominated in legal industry directories since 2011, specific recognition of Daniel's client service is set out below.
