

Kathryn Macken and Diana Rodriguez will be joining local offshore practitioners and onshore experts at this unique Guernsey-based event to address key contentious and non-contentious developments impacting Private Clients.

Specifically scheduled for October 2024, the event anticipates further guidance on non-dom changes and a clearer political landscape, allowing speakers to provide you practical advice rather than speculation on effective future planning within the sector.

Please contact us directly to connect at the conference.