Background and experience

Before joining Ogier Sarah worked in Newcastle for boutique corporate law firm Square One Law. Sarah managed a general property case load including the property aspects of high value share/asset sales and purchases and portfolio refinance.

While practising in the UK Sarah has represented and assisted a wide range of corporate clients and HNW individuals with general property management, leases, sales, acquisitions and secured lending (including large portfolio refinances).

Sarah qualified as a lawyer and was admitted to the roll of the Law Society of England & Wales in 2010. Prior to this, Sarah studied English Literature at Newcastle University before completing the Common Profession Exam and Legal Practice course to convert to law.

Admitted in:

2010 - England & Wales

Recognition

"Sarah is an absolute superstar. The diligence and level of work she delivers coupled with her tenacity makes her our go-to"

Chambers UK, 2024

"When working with Sarah Parish we have the feeling that she really enjoys what she is doing. She treats our properties as if they were her own. She gives excellent advice and has good knowledge of our market. She is always pleasant and has a lovely sense of humour. Sarah has also the knack of getting on well with her opposite number during difficult transactions."
