

Nicole Austin-Vautier

Areas of expertise

Background and experience

Prior to joining the firm, Nicole worked in the litigation department of another full-service offshore law firm, specialising in criminal law for approximately five years before moving into the commercial litigation team.

Nicole supported lead advisers on a range of cases including high profile historic abuse trials. In addition, she was direct support to the Bâtonnier in all aspects of his role as head of the Jersey Bar. Latterly, as part of the commercial litigation department, Nicole assisted all members of the team on a wide range of commercial, trust and insurance matters (to include in connection with the landmark trust dispute, Crociani v Crociani).

Prior to her career in law, Nicole studied criminology with law (joint honours) and later completed the graduate diploma in law (with commendation) at the University of Law.

Nicole commenced her training contract to qualify as an English solicitor with Ogier in September 2022. She recently qualified in March 2024 having successfully completed the firm's training program.

Admitted in:

2024 - England and Wales

News and insights

