Background and experience

Jacqueline, who was named as one of the Top 10 Professionals in China and Hong Kong last year, works with Ogier's legal and corporate administration teams as a trusted advisor to HNWI and UHNWI clients in the Asian region.

Jacqueline is a Member of Law Society of Upper Canada, Law Society of Hong Kong and Law Society of England and Wales and Member of The Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP). She is a former Chairman of STEP's Hong Kong branch and continues to have material involvement as Council Member.

Jacqueline has numerous accolades to her name, including being named in The Citywealth 2018 IFC Power Women Top 200 and the Citywealth 2019 Top 10 Professionals in China and Hong Kong.

Clients have described Jacqueline as "one of those rare professionals who understands both the tax structuring aspects and the fiduciary responsibilities of being a discretionary trustee", who offers "excellent and high quality advice".

Jacqueline has specialised in the private client industry for more than 20 years, with experience as a trust and tax lawyer Baker & McKenzie in Hong Kong before moving into the private banking sector. Jacqueline worked for Standard Chartered and LGT before joining HSBC Trustee (Hong Kong) Limited, where she set up and managed private trusts for UHNW families in Hong Kong and Taiwan. Before leaving HSBC she was Managing Director and head of the Philanthropy team.
