

James Clifford

Consultant

Cayman Islands

+1 345 815 1876

+1 345 525 1876.

james.clifford@ogier.com

VCard

Areas of expertise

Corporate and Financial Services Disputes

Dispute Resolution

Fraud and Asset Tracing

Funds Disputes

International Arbitration

Legal

Background and experience

James's main areas of expertise are funds litigation and contentious trusts. Before joining Ogier, James practised at the English Bar for more than 30 years, where he specialised in the field of occupational pension schemes and, more recently, international commercial arbitration, mainly for clients from Russia and Ukraine.

James has a BA in jurisprudence from the University of Oxford.

Admitted in:

2020 - Cayman Islands

1984 - England and Wales (non-practising)

News and insights

Find out more

19 January 2023

Focus on fraud and asset tracing: recent developments in the law of knowing receipt in the Cayman Islands

Jennifer Fox
Team: James Clifford

📍 Cayman Islands

Insight

8 July 2022

Focus on fraud and asset tracing: recent developments in the law of tracing in the Cayman Islands

Jennifer Fox
Team: James Clifford

📍 Cayman Islands

Insight

7 October 2021

Can a person commence proceedings against a Cayman company in winding up without leave?

James Clifford
Team: Jennifer Fox

Insight

30 September 2021

Litigating against insolvent insureds under Cayman law: whose money is it anyway?

James Clifford
Team: Rebecca Findlay, Jennifer Fox

📍 Cayman Islands

Insight

