Background and experience

Ross has significant experience working with cross generational dynastic structures administering a variety of assets, including investments in residential, commercial and development property, managed funds, unquoted private company shares, investment portfolios and luxury assets.

Ross likes to provide a high touch service to his clients and is adept at helping them navigate their way through complex tax and legal issues.

At Ogier, Ross leads a team of trust professionals who manage the day-to-day administration of trusts, companies, private trust companies and foundations to provide a bespoke service to the families we serve. Within this role, Ross also acts as a day-to-day point of contact for individuals and their families, working closely with their advisors from many jurisdictions including Asia, the Middle East, London, Geneva, Zurich, the Caribbean and USA.

Prior to joining Ogier in 2021, Ross spent eight years at an independent trust company where he worked closely with a number of ultra-high net worth Middle Eastern and Asian families.
