Background and experience

Rebecca is a law graduate from the University of Liverpool and has also studied with the University of Law, achieving a commendation in the Legal Practice Course with a Masters in Law. During her studies, Rebecca undertook many work placements as a paralegal to gain legal experience in various departments, including private wealth, corporate and litigation.

Since graduating, Rebecca worked as a paralegal in the banking and finance department of another leading offshore law firm. In 2020, she moved into finance as a senior funds administrator and specialised in real estate and private equity funds.
