Background and experience

Having first joined Ogier as a student in 2015, Rory has successfully progressed through the bursary scheme and onto the England and Wales trainee solicitor programme. During this time, Rory spent time in the firm's corporate, funds, property, dispute resolution, banking and corporate administration teams.

Prior to joining Ogier, Rory had undertaken work placements in numerous departments in a number of leading law firms both in Jersey and London, as well as in Singapore in the commercial department of a Magic Circle law firm.

Rory recently achieved a Commendation in his Professional Legal Practice Masters qualification, with a thesis on the implementation of electronic wills. Prior to this, he graduated with an Upper Second Class Honours degree in History from the University of Warwick and completed the GDL and LPC.
