Background and experience

Terv began his career as a chartered accountant at PwC, where he audited private equity and real estate funds, before undertaking roles at Vastardis Capital Services and then Alter Domus, leading and growing their fund and corporate services presences in Asia.

In addition, Terv has held senior roles, including head of APAC for real estate finance and business management and head of fund finance and operations, at asset management companies Aberdeen Standard Investments and AEW. Through these positions, Terv gained a 360 degree view of client expectations and the challenges clients face when dealing with providers.
