Background and experience

Prior to joining Ogier again in 2022, Arthur has gained experience in the Grand-Duchy, having already worked in Ogier's investment funds team as a legal intern and more recently in a Big Four as an international tax advisor. He also had several experiences in both audit and law firms in Toulouse (France) and in the tax department of one of the largest French corporations.

Arthur holds a Master 1 in Tax Law from Toulouse I Capitole University and a master's degree (MS – Mastère Spécialisé) in International Taxation from Skema Business School.

Arthur is a French-native speaker and is fluent in English and Spanish.
