Background and experience

Starting her career as an academic in the UK, Lisa moved to the Cayman Islands in 2001 and acted as deputy, and later acting head of the Policy and Development Division of the Cayman Islands Monetary Authority (CIMA), for two years. After working as a consultant to the Insurance Firms Division of the Financial Services Authority (FSA) in the UK and worked as a Regulatory and Compliance Services manager with a "big four" accountancy firm in the UK she returned to CIMA for a further three years.

In 2008 she founded Liberty Compliance Consulting offering research, strategy and training solutions complemented by compliance and audit services for all types of regulated financial services businesses. Liberty has since advised and acted for firms, associations and statutory bodies in the Cayman Islands, Bermuda, Barbados and the Channel Islands. Lisa was the first professional in Cayman to receive the CAMS-Audit designation.

- Chair of the Accounting Sector working group for the Cayman Islands National Risk Assessment 2021
- Director of Regulation & Standards – Cayman Islands Institute of Professional Accountant (CIIPA)
- A member of the editorial board of the Cayman Financial Review between 2012-2016
