Background and experience

Lydia joined Ogier's Ireland office as a trainee solicitor in 2021. Lydia studied Civil Law International at the National University of Ireland, Galway, and graduated with first-class honours.

As part of her degree, Lydia studied at Science Po Aix-en-Provence, France, for two semesters. In 2018, she was awarded the University College Dublin's Sutherland School of Law Bursary and completed a Master's in European Law and Public Affairs.

Prior to joining Ogier, Lydia worked with Citibank in Dublin as a compliance product analyst.
