

Ogier Guernsey acts for Plant Health Care plc on CISX listing

Deals - 21/05/2010

Ogier Corporate Finance Limited was delighted to act as sponsor to Plant Health Care plc in connection with its recent listing of its shares on the Channel Islands Stock Exchange.

Plant Health Care plc is a trading company established in England and Wales and is the holding company for a group which has been established to provide environmentally responsible products for plants and soil. The Plant Health Care group's primary strategy is to develop and provide naturally-derived IP-protected products which promote plant growth, yield and health. Its products create both economic and environmental benefits for its customers and capitalise upon the long-term trends towards natural systems and biological products which enhance plant health and growth.

Managing Associate Frances Watson and Senior Associate, Andrew Keast of Ogier in Guernsey advised on this matter.
