

Podcast: Changing terms in Cayman corporate fund governing documents

News - 20/01/2016

In our latest eight minute podcast, join Cayman funds specialists Nick Rogers and Joanne Huckle as they discuss changing terms in the governing documents for a Cayman corporate fund. In particular, they discuss:

- which documents govern the need for consent?;
- what type of changes require consent?;
- what type of consents are required, and what is the position on negative consent?; and
- how can fund documents be drafted to manage investor consent issues down the line?
