

Cayman funds partner to build on offshore interest at San Francisco CoinAlts Fund Symposium

News - 12/09/2017

Investment funds partner Nick Rogers will be attending the CoinAlts Fund Symposium on the investment, legal and operation issues for cryptocurrencies in San Francisco this week.

Nick – who is attending the event from the Cayman investment funds team - will be on hand to speak with delegates about cryptocurrencies from an offshore perspective.

Their attendance comes as Ogier grows its digital, blockchain and fintech offering as a dedicated area within its corporate and commercial service line, led by a global group of partners including Bradley Kruger, Piers Dryden, Kate Hodson and Nick Rogers.

Nick said: "I'm looking forward to attending CoinAlts Fund Symposium and discussing with delegates the offshore position on cryptocurrencies and Initial Coin Offerings (ICOs).

"Cryptocurrencies are a fascinating area, not only because of the rapid technological developments but also from a legal and regulatory perspective.

"We are seeing huge interest in the cryptocurrency space and look forward to discussing key developments with industry thought leaders."
