

Ogier sponsors Guernsey Hockey men's league for third year running

News - 13/12/2018

Ogier has extended its sponsorship of the Guernsey Hockey Senior Leagues Men's Division 1 and 2 for a third year.

Rob Newton, Finance Director of Guernsey Hockey, said: "This support from Ogier enables us to educate, develop and promote the sport and to help our players to gain competitive experience."

Guernsey Hockey runs training and matches for all ages. The Board of Guernsey Hockey see the success of Senior hockey as a key stimulus for aspiring the thriving Junior members. The success of the leagues is an important factor as it should complement the first class infrastructure that the members benefit from.

The men's divisions sponsored by Ogier cover a total of 12 teams.

Ogier partner Bryon Rees added: "We are proud to support Guernsey Hockey. It makes a great contribution to the Guernsey community and the development of players at all levels on the Island. As we embark on what promises to be another highly competitive season we wish teams and players all the best."
