

Latin America focus for Ogier private wealth specialists attending STEP Miami 10th Annual Summit

News - 21/05/2019

Partner Anthony Partridge and Senior Associates Fraser Allister and Cline Glidden will be attending the STEP Miami 10th Annual Summit on 31 May.

The summit provides practitioners with the opportunity to review the latest issues concerning international private client planning, presented by leading professionals in the area.

This year's topics include Latin America country updates, regulation, globalisation and US tax planning.

Ogier's Latin American team has been recognised as one of the best-established groups for work with Brazilian clients in Latin Lawyer 250. Ogier's Cayman private wealth team is recognised as top tier in the latest Legal 500 guide.

Anthony Partridge said: "We're looking forward to meeting colleagues and friends to discuss how we can help our clients from Latin America navigate their way through a myriad of international regulation, including anti-money laundering, economic substance, beneficial ownership registers and tax exchange treaties, when setting up estate planning structures."

If you are attending the summit please don't hesitate to contact the team using their details on the right.
