

Ogier named in GRR 100 as leading cross-border restructuring and insolvency adviser

News - 03/07/2019

Ogier has been named in the annual GRR 100 as a leading adviser to cross-border restructurings and insolvencies.

Ogier's international Restructuring and Insolvency team covers BVI, Cayman, Guernsey, Jersey and Luxembourg law.

Restructuring and Insolvency specialist Marc Kish said: "We have acted in some of the largest and most complex restructuring matters in recent years including Ocean Rig, Abraaj, Toys R Us and Carlyle Capital Corporation.

"Ogier's global R&I team is instructed on cross-border liquidations, receiverships and restructurings, involving overseas insolvency practitioners and clients with a variety of offshore financial interests.

"Our team includes some of the foremost names in offshore insolvency practice, including partners who worked through the 2008 financial crisis and subsequent restructuring and insolvency work.

"This recognition by the Global Restructuring Review confirms that Ogier's large and experienced R&I team has the experience and capacity to take on the most demanding and complex cross-border matters."
