

Three Ogier lawyers named in Citywealth International Powerwomen Top 100

News - 06/12/2019

Two of Ogier's Jersey-based lawyers have been named in the Citywealth International Powerwomen Top 100 List.

Partner Sophie Reguengo and Head of Employee Incentives, Private Wealth Jersey, Katherine Neal, both feature in the list.

International Powerwomen Top 100 ranking recognises the women who are power players within the international community and recognising talented wealth management professionals.

Inclusion on the list brings together client and peer reviews, star ratings, case studies and more details about the listed professionals.

Sophie is a highly experienced investment funds and regulatory lawyer and has impressed clients with her practical advice, knowledge and commercial acumen.

Katherine leads Ogier's Employee Incentives team and has been described as 'one of the Island's go to lawyers' in 2019.

Ogier's Global Head of Private Wealth, James Campbell, said: "It's great news that, once again, Ogier names figure prominently in lists of the most influential practitioners working in the private wealth sector. Over the years, each of these individuals has secured an excellent reputation with clients and colleagues and this is reflected in their appearance in these lists."
