

Ogier's top-tier Cayman Trusts Advisory Group praised for "very personalised service" in Legal 500

News - 17/12/2019

Ogier's contentious and non-contentious trusts and private wealth services in Cayman continue to lead the market with a top tier ranking in the latest Legal 500 guide.

The Private Wealth team, which specialises in non-contentious private client services and is led by partners Anthony Partridge and Giorgio Subiotto, is praised for its work in all aspects of wealth structuring for succession planning and business purposes, including asset protection, family governance work, and wills and probate work.

Anthony Partridge is praised for his "particular expertise in cross-border succession and probate matters." Anthony is named as a "Leading Individual", and recently promoted Fraser Allister is tipped as a "Rising Star".

The directory also highlights Ogier's Dispute Resolution team's pedigree with trust litigation and contentious probate, highlighting in particular the work of partners Rachael Reynolds and Jennifer Fox.

Anthony said: "We're delighted to see the continued excellent performance of our contentious and non-contentious private wealth services in the Legal 500. We are proud to provide a unique and personal service so it's particularly pleasing to see this highlighted in client feedback.

"The directory research process is a rigorous one and to have been named in the very top tier of advisers in our area is an accomplishment that we are all very proud of."
