

Kate Kirk named Woman of the Year – Business Services at Citywealth Powerwomen Awards

News - 09/03/2020

Ogier's Director of Marketing Kate Kirk has been named Woman of the Year – Business Services (Gold) at the Citywealth Powerwomen Awards.

This is the second time Kate has been named Business Services Woman of the Year at Citywealth's Powerwomen Awards, following her win in 2017.

Kate joined Ogier in 2015 to lead on the firm's award-winning rebrand, and has since also seen Ogier win awards for its website and social media marketing. A communications specialist whose career began in journalism, Kate has 20 years' marketing experience spanning public, private and third sectors.

Global Managing Partner Edward Mackereth said: "Kate is truly a leader in her field, which is demonstrated not only through Ogier's award-winning brand, marketing and communications, but also through her outstanding leadership of her team.

"In light of International Women's Day and Women's History Month, it's particularly fitting to shine a light on the talented women we are lucky to work alongside at Ogier."
