

Ogier partner to moderate AVCF 2020 panel discussion

News - 03/07/2020

Ogier's Hong Kong practice partner Nicholas Plowman will be moderating a panel discussion on the role of General Partners during the COVID-19 crisis at the forthcoming Asia Venture Capital Forum 2020.

Ogier are proud to be sponsoring the annual forum organised by the HKVCA which, this year, is being held virtually on Monday 6 July 2020. The event will include panel discussions and group sessions on topics including the future of logistics, corporate venture capital and the harnessing of biometrics and AI.

Nick's panel discussion will look at the lasting trends that could come out of the COVID-19 pandemic, how good GPs can help portfolio companies to handle the current challenges and how would the exit landscape from COVID-19 could look.
