

New partner Justin Davis joins Ogier's growing Dispute Resolution and Restructuring and Insolvency

News - 08/12/2020

Experienced BVI litigator Justin Davis has joined Ogier's Dispute Resolution and Restructuring and Insolvency teams in Hong Kong as partner. His arrival comes at a time of significant growth in Ogier's contentious service lines across the firm.

Justin's practice focuses on complex, high-value, multi-jurisdictional commercial and corporate litigation, shareholders' disputes and insolvency litigation. He has particular experience of obtaining and opposing freezing injunctions, asset disclosure orders, receivership orders and anti-suit injunctions. He also has extensive experience in obtaining and opposing winding up orders and asset enforcement orders.

Justin will play a key role in Ogier's global BVI law offering, ensuring round-the-clock coverage.

Global Head of BVI Dispute Resolution Brian Lacy said: "We are delighted to welcome Justin to the Ogier partnership. Justin has significant experience across the spectrum of BVI litigation, including in the areas where we are experiencing high demand. His arrival will ensure that our market-leading team continues to provide a truly global service to clients."

Global Head of Dispute Resolution Rachael Reynolds said: "I am pleased to welcome Justin to the team, and look forward to working alongside him as Ogier continues to lead the charge in offshore litigation."

Justin becomes the third Dispute Resolution partner based in Ogier's Hong Kong office, joining Oliver Payne and recently promoted Michael Snape. Together, they help Asia-based clients navigate the full range of contentious Cayman and BVI law issues.
