

James Campbell named in 2021 eprivateclient 50 Most Influential

News - 05/02/2021

Ogier's global head of private wealth, James Campbell, has been recognised as a key player in the UK and offshore private client practitioner sector by eprivateclient in their prestigious 50 Most Influential list.

James' inclusion in the list was decided after a rigorous judging process which took into account achievements candidates had made in the past 12 months, with the fifty individuals in the final list highlighting 'the depth of talent and breadth of skilled and professional advice available to clients across the world from UK and offshore private client professionals.'

This is the latest in a series of industry accolades for James and his team, including a listing in the Private Client Global Elite, election to the American College of Trusts and Estate Counsel (being the only Jersey lawyer to do so), and a continued top-tier ranking for the Jersey private wealth team in the latest directories.

James said: "I'm pleased to have been recognised by such a prestigious publication and to be placed among peers who are performing at the top of the private wealth industry. All individual accolades have a team effort behind them – the reason why I am able to do what I do is because of the strength and skill of the team I work with. I'd like to thank them for their essential role in our success as a market-leading serviceline."
