

Ogier named a Top Offshore Law Firm by eprivateclient

News - 04/06/2021

Ogier has been named one of the 2021 eprivateclient Top Offshore Law Firms, maintaining its Tier I listing for the "multi-jurisdiction" firms category.

Determined by a survey of over 50 firms, the 2021 rankings recognise the leading offshore law firms across the globe that specialise in establishing and advising upon trusts, companies and foundations and advising on international tax planning, corporate structuring, global asset protection and wealth management.

eprivateclient says: "With the pandemic highlighting the need to protect wealth, offshore law firms continue to play a vital role in the global private wealth sector with individuals and their families turning to them for legal advice and structuring and it is vital that firms that provide this advice outside of the UK are recognised."

James Campbell, global head of Private Wealth at Ogier, said: "We're delighted to be recognised once more as a world-leading offshore law firm by eprivateclient. The past year has presented many challenges, as well as opportunities for transformation, and this listing is testament to the hard work and dedication of our private wealth teams across our jurisdictions who always strive to provide personalised service for each client."
