

Henry Wickham sworn in as a Notary Public

News - 14/10/2021

Ogier counsel and private wealth specialist Henry Wickham has been sworn in as a Notary Public in Jersey.

Notary Publics enjoy global recognition when it comes to verifying and authenticating documents, acts and events to render them acceptable to authorities and courts in foreign jurisdictions, which further expands the suite of services Henry can provide to private and institutional clients.

Henry is a former chair of the STEP Jersey branch and a Legal 500 UK 2021 Key Lawyer.

Henry said: "I'm pleased to have been sworn in as a Notary Public and to be able to provide this important service to our clients who need documents notarised and legalised in Jersey. Being able to notarise documents will provide a real benefit for clients, especially given the multijurisdictional nature of private wealth work."
