

Ogier's "extremely responsive" and "meticulous" team praised in Chambers Asia Pacific

News - 20/12/2021

Ogier's Banking and Finance, Corporate, Dispute Resolution and Investment Funds teams in Hong Kong have been praised for their "commercial" approach and "cogent and concise" advice in the new Chambers Asia Pacific guide.

In Banking and Finance, "seasoned veteran" and team head Anthony Oakes is praised for his strong leadership and "reliably sensible commercial oversight", while David Nelson "consistently delivers high-quality advice within budget."

Global Head of Corporate Nathan Powell is "very well-respected" and "one of the key authorities in the offshore space". Head of Dispute Resolution in Asia Oliver Payne is described in client feedback as "very smart" and "always a joy to work with."

In Investment Funds, team head Nicholas Plowman is praised for his "depth of expertise", with clients saying they "attribute much value to his advice". Kate Hodson and head of ESG is "very strong and manages her team very well" and is praised for her expertise in ESG.

Hong Kong Practice Partner Nicholas Plowman said: "This is an excellent set of results, commensurate with Ogier's standing as a leading player in offshore law in Hong Kong. We're particularly pleased to see so much strong client feedback for individual team members across all service lines."
