

Winners announced at the Guernsey Property and Construction Awards 2021

News - 18/02/2022

The Ogier-sponsored Guernsey Property and Construction Awards winners were announced at a presentation ceremony on 17 February to a packed audience at the St Pierre Park Hotel.

The awards are the island's leading showcase for talent in the property development and construction industries. The judging panel featured a selection of industry experts, including Ogier partner and Guernsey property specialist Martyn Baudains.

"Ogier is proud to sponsor the Guernsey Property and Construction Awards and be a part of celebrating those individuals and businesses who work so hard," said Martyn.

"The support for the awards demonstrates the value people place in good quality workmanship and professionalism at all levels. Congratulations to the winners and all the finalists; you should all be very proud of your achievements."
