

WWF-Hong Kong joins Ogier's Talent4Impact as industry partner for 2022

News - 11/07/2022

Ogier and our Talent4Impact co-founders Dream Impact and Sustainable Finance Initiative are delighted to welcome WWF-Hong Kong as an industry partner for 2022.

Talent4Impact is a two-month fellowship offering practical work experience in sustainable investment and impact, with the aim of building talent in the industry. Applications will close at midnight on 17 July.

Fellows will complete a total of two placements during the fellowship selected by the founding partners. Fellows placed at WWF-Hong Kong will gain exposure to WWF's Bankable Nature Solutions (BNS) Asia-Pacific team based in Hong Kong, and have the opportunity to take one further placement.

"WWF's BNS team brings an exciting dynamic to the Talent4Impact industry partner line-up. BNS aims to mobilise private-sector investment into projects that not only build more sustainable, climate-resilient ecosystems for people, nature and economies, but are also financially viable enough to be scaled up and replicated. This aspect of blended financing is critical for the next generation of talent to understand," said Leonie Kelly, Global Head of Sustainable Investment Consulting.

Fellows will also be placed at one of our industry partners organisations: Asia Investor Group on Climate Change (AIGCC) or Social Ventures Hong Kong (SVhk), or at the founding bodies - Dream Impact, Sustainable Finance Initiative, or Ogier Global's Sustainable Investment Consulting.
